"Living for God Today!"

"You are my God . . ."

Those four words from Psalm 118:28 certainly are a confession of faith. But they are much more than that. Reading on in verse 28, it becomes apparent those words also lead to a response. Indeed, they become the foundation for a way of life.

You are my God, AND (emphasis added) I will give You thanks; You are my God, AND I will exalt You.

"You are my God . . . and I will live for you today!" Such a confession and response serves as a nice definition for 'stewardship'; that is, responsible management of all that God has given us. Our way of life will reflect our faith in the God who has given us life. We are life-long managers of all He blesses us with. And as such, we are not afraid to make life-long commitments to Him as our God. In the words of a contemporary Christian song: "O God, You are my God . . . and I will follow You all of my days."

These words of Psalm 118:28 will serve as the basis of our stewardship effort here at Trinity during the month of November. Under the theme, "Living for God Today," we will have various opportunities to grow in the grace of living our lives for God. Daily devotions for the month based on this theme will be posted on our Trinity website (www.trinitysr.org). Hard copies of these devotions will also be made available at church. In addition, our Sunday morning

Bible study in the fellowship hall for the month will examine other key verses of Psalm 118.

We'll see why this Psalm was especially important to the Jews, and why it was possibly the last Scripture Jesus shared with His disciples on the night before His suffering and death.

Along with your regular worship during the Sundays of November, I encourage you to make use of the daily devotions, and weekly use of the Bible study. Then on Sunday, November 22nd, we will have the opportunity once again in worship to make our stewardship commitment/faith promise for the next year - with "thanksgiving and exaltation"- to the God whom we confess to be "my God".

Pastor Paul

So Grateful!

Thank you for your wonderful outpouring of love shown last Sunday, for the cards, phone calls and gifts. The many years with you have been such a blessing to Adeline and me.

God Bless you all!

"Are You My Secret Angel?"

A secret angel is anyone from our congregation who volunteers to secretly support one of Trinity's confirmation students as they work through their confirmation classes. The most important duty of a secret angel is to remember the student in their prayers. Only with the "Lord's Will" will the children hear His words and learn His lessons. To allow the students to know their angel is near, secret angels drop off anonymous forms of encouragement in the church office called 'angel mail' at least ONCE a month for the student. Secret angel mail is kept simple: cards, letters, words of wisdom, favorite verses, poems or snacks/treats are just a few ideas. The student has the same secret angel throughout 7th and 8th grade. The 'secret identity' of their angel is always a mystery and is not revealed to them until their confirmation day! Trinity's congregation is blessed to have 11 new 7th grade children enrolled in confirmation class this year! Would you prayerfully consider mentoring one of them? Please contact Kristen Fuchs for more information including the list of class names: kjfuchs14@gmail.com or call me at: 320-282-4432. Remember 'Shhhhhh!!' Your identity is a secret until the student's confirmation day!

Hark THE Glad Sound

It's time! It's time to get ready for Christmas! I know that, because last week I saw the first Christmas trees of the season on display in a local store! Let the Christmas shopping season begin!

Better yet, let the Advent Season begin! Let's get ready and truly prepare for Christmas by gathering around the Advent Wreath to worship and prepare our hearts and homes to again celebrate the best and greatest gift of them all – the gift of a Savior – the birth of the Christ!

Our Advent Family Worship services will begin on Wednesday, December 2nd at 6:00 p.m. immediately following God's Grub. Come for supper, stay for worship and join in a very special time of faith preparation for young and old alike. Let the Christ-centered conversations, Scripture verses, songs, prayers, and activities of each worship service bring the glad sounds of the Advent season into your hearts and homes.

In HIS service,
Pastor Dave

DCO CORNER:

This month I'd like to share with you a seven year timeline showing the process John Bakou has been through to become a pastor in the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod.

December 14, 2008 - Trinity Voter's Assembly approved the planting of a new daughter church by becoming a Covenant Congregation and a few hours later the Anyuak gathered for their first worship service.

September 6, 2011 - John Bakou began working on staff at Trinity part-time and started his online classes at Concordia Seminary. He took 4 classes per year for 4 years in the Ethnic Immigrant Institute of Theology (EIIT).

October 26, 2012 - John was officially assigned as vicar and placed to serve in that capacity here at Trinity to the Anyuak congregation.

August 7, 2015 - John completed EIIT-16 Pastoral Ministry II. This was the last class in his EIIT 4 year program.

September 10, 2015 - Professor David Lewis from Concordia Seminary conducted a theological interview on the phone with John.

September 30, 2015 - Because of a successful theological interview the faculty at Concordia Seminary voted to certify John for placement into the pastoral office.

October 23, 2015 - John graduated from the EIIT program and received a call to serve the Anyuak here at Trinity.

November 7, 2015 - An Ordination Service is being planned here at Trinity. Many Anyuak will come from all over Minnesota. MNN District President Don Fondow and other clergy will be participating. You are invited to come and celebrate John's ordination at the 4:00 p.m. service here at church.

A reception will follow the service in the fellowship hall.

November 8, 2015 - At our 10:30 a.m. Worship John will be installed here at Trinity as pastor to the Anyuak congregation.

Pastor John will continue at 3 days a week and will continue to conduct weekly services. He will be especially focusing on teaching the sacraments, stewardship and Christian education.

The Anyuak are very thankful for the support they receive from the Trinity, MNN District, MNN District LWML and our LWML Society.

Craig Cooper, DCO

Worship and Music Notes

Autumn Blessings to all!

Thank you members of Trinity for your warm welcome. For those of you who do not know me yet, my name is Ruth Immerfall and I am excited to have been called back to Trinity as your contemporary worship leader! I say "called back" because I worked at Trinity from 1994-2000 as an organist, bell director and worship leader and was also the music teacher at the school. So . . . it took 15 years, but here I am once again answering the Lord's call to serve Him at Trinity Lutheran Church!

I also have the wonderful opportunity of teaching music to the K-8 students at Prince of Peace during the school year and give private piano lessons. I have been blessed to be married to Ron for 17 years. Ron is employed at Westrock (the "cardboard making" place) as a maintenance worker and boiler operator. He also enjoys singing, fishing, flying and racing. We have two terrific children, Mackenzie and Elliott and a grandson, Ethan who is 9 years old, in the third grade and a joy in our lives!

I ask for your patience as I gather names, numbers and email addresses of the musicians in our congregation. Please contact me if you would like to sing with a worship team or if you play an instrument (i.e. - guitar, drums, piano, etc.) I look forward to getting to know all of the members of Trinity as well as working with our musicians to glorify the Lord in song!

Singing His Praises,

Ruth Immerfall

"More Than Enough"
Planned Giving Stories for Christian Stewards

Michael and Kelly were retired engineers with two adult children. They owned a home, some stocks, and IRAs. They met with their financial advisor to discuss a plan to provide for their family, and for some of their favorite charities.

Kelly: We both had a lot of money in our IRAs, which was more than we could ever use. We wondered if we could pass this on to our children.

Michael: Our advisor explained the problem with giving our retirement savings to our family. He said a majority of the gift would be taxed. We didn't want our children paying any more in taxes than they already pay.

To alleviate their concerns, Michael and Kelly's advisor created a plan that stipulated their stocks and home go to the children. He then recommended a bequest of the retirement assets be left to their church and other charities, which could then receive all the assets tax free, allowing them to use the funds to further their missions.

Michael: It was easy to make bequests from our IRAs to our church. We filled out the online forms on our custodian's website that permitted us to allocate percentage shares to charitable causes.

Kelly: This plan met all of our goals. We like the fact that our children could immediately sell the house and stocks with little or no tax due. We were also happy to help our church.

Information and confidential consultation about planned giving options that might benefit you can be obtained by contacting either Mr. David Priebe, retired business attorney (612)508-4640; or Mr. George Miller (800)482-5022. Both David and George are Gift Planning Counselors for the MN North District - LCMS.
